MONT - REDON

Very Limited Stocks

These aged wines have been checked and re-corked (and where necessary topped up with same vintage) – tasting notes for most vintages click here

So all aged bottles are in perfect condition and with new corks. A 1971 in 750ml tasted recently was drinking well though would continue to develop given careful cellaring.

Mont-Redon is a remarkable single vineyard owning some of the very best terroirs of the appellation including much of the famed high plateau of Chateauneuf du Pape which is strewn with large river stones 'galets rous' over clay and sand. Vineyards surrounding the high plateau have varied soil profiles suitable to all the 13 varieties that are planted in Chateauneuf-du-Pape including patches that are rich in limestone (suitable for some white varieties resulting in some of the very best white Chateauneuf-du-Papes of the appellation).

Recent years have seen Pierre Fabre take over as wine-maker together with tremendous investment in the cellars and winemaking equipment and the wines continue to develop and improve with the 2012 being especially successful. This wine provides great enjoyment now and with careful cellaring will continue to for decades to come

Pierre Fabre (Mont-Redon's winemaker) points out that the reputation of Châteauneuf-du-Pape was built on its being "the most elegant and complex wine of the southern Rhône, not the most massive" and that's the style that Mont-Redon pursues.
